

BRIGHAM J. YOUNG

Son of Jonathan Young, who came to Utah in 1821, and Sarah Toomer. Born Dec. 22, 1853. Supt. Sunday schools; High Priest. Road Supervisor. Farmer.

297

YOUNG, BRIGHAM J. (son of Jonathan Young and Sarah Toomer). Born Dec. 23, 1853. Came to Utah 1861. at Heber City, Utah—in Endowment House three months later (daughter of William McDonald and Sarah Shirts of County Down, Ireland, pioneers). She was born March 3, 1855. Their children: Sarah Sarah b. Dec. 18, 1875, m. John H. Tuke; Brigham D. b. Dec. 8, 1877, m. Sarah McMullin; Margaret b. Aug. 4, 1879, m. John Van Wagenen; Fannie b. April 30, 1881, m. Joseph Peterson; Mary b. March 11, 1883, and Eliza b. March 11, 1883, died; William G. b. April 22, 1884, m. Edna Wilson; Blanche b. March 11, 1886, m. Moroni McArtee; Bernice b. Nov. 27, 1888, m. Hyrum Anderson; Cioe Violet b. Jan. 7, 1890, m. Augustus Johnson; Angeline b. Nov. 25, 1892, m. Augustus Johnson; Ray b. Nov. 8, 1894, died; Arthur b. June 6, 1896, died; Walter b. April 7, 1898; Alma b. Sept. 21, 1901, died. Family home Heber City, Utah. High priest; ward teacher; superintendent Sunday schools, Riverdale ward, four years. Road supervisor 1894-1902. Settled in Wasatch county 1864, where he assisted in building up the country. Farmer and cattle raiser.

297